DETAILS

Enrique Rios, a male from Esparto, California, was reported missing by his mother on October 19, 2016. Enrique was last seen at 9 p.m. in his family's home on October 16, 2016. His disappearance was initially treated as a runaway because no information or evidence suggested foul play.

Enrique Rios and Elijah Moore are friends who both attended Cesar Chavez Community School in Woodland, California. They vanished 25 days apart with little evidence to indicate where they went or who, if anyone, they may be with.

This case is being investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Yolo County Sheriff's Department.
